This campground was recognized as “Camp-Resort of the Year” for excellence in management, operations, appearance and performance.

Get away from the hustle and bustle of the city and enjoy the cranberry bogs of Wisconsin. This picturesque Camp-Resort is located in Monroe County.

At Jellystone Park in Warrens, you’ll find all the amenities that make a great family vacation, group gathering or reunion. Experience Ranger Smith™ Water Town, complete with a wave pool, lazy river and features the 400’ Blazin’ Big Blue Waterslide. For more water fun, there’s also a swim-n-play beach with sand and a swing set and volleyball court in the water. In addition, you’ll find a state-of-the-art entertainment area with game room. And for the sports enthusiasts there are basketball, horseshoe, and sand volleyball courts, two mini-golf courses, a fishing hole, an outstanding activity program, and much more!

RVers will appreciate the full-hookup, 20-30-50 amp, pull-thru sites; while tent campers can set up on a secluded wooded site or be near the action. Prefer a cabin? There are several styles available, from camping cabins to villas.

The park is owned by Bruce and Andrea Bryant and operated by General Managers, Bob and Diane Yaquinto, who take great pride in providing excellent customer service and a premier facility.

We congratulate the Bryants and the Yaquintos on their achievement! For more information on this award-winning Camp-Resort, visit www.jellystonewarrens.com.
