*50th Anniversary
Piercetown, Indiana*

Our history . . .

Keith Horn, original owner of Jellystone Park™, operated one of the area's most successful restaurants in Warsaw—Horn's Sunnymead— during the 1950's and 1960's. He, along with Colonel Harlan Sanders, began franchising the now famous Kentucky Fried Chicken restaurants around the country. After moving to and operating several restaurants in Michigan, Keith retired and moved his family to Florida to enjoy the warm, sunny climate.

It was during his retirement that he and his family traveled around the country in their newly acquired Condor motor home. Quality family-oriented campgrounds were hard to find; and Keith met a man who was franchising a new concept in family campgrounds, Doug Haag and the Yogi Bear's Jellystone Parks. Keith was so impressed that he purchased the original Yogi Bear™ franchise on August 25, 1970 and soon thereafter purchased 60 acres of property near Ridinger Lake. Construction began in early 1971 and opened on a limited basis later that year with 260 sites. At the time, Yogi Bear Jellystone Park at Pierceton, was the most expensive, privately financed and most modern campground ever built. Campsites rented for $5.00 per night and included water, 20 amp electric and individual sewer hook up.

The Arab Oil embargo hit the country in 1973 and the camping and the RV industry were devastated. Leisure traveling came to a complete halt. As a result, many campgrounds struggled. Keith realized that unless something changed, his dream was in jeopardy.

Virginia and Keith Horn with Larry Ladd

That change came about and was introduced as deeded lot ownership. The first lot was offered for sale in 1974 for $1,495.00. An additional 140 acres was purchased and development began on over 800 additional lots.

The RV industry began to develop park model trailers; many with slide outs and amenities to make camping more comfortable and enjoyable for families of all ages.

Mr. Horn, wishing to retire, sold the park to the membership in 1979. He lived with his wife Virginia in Warsaw until his recent passing. He had two sons, Kevin and Kim. A son, Scott, died in 1982 after a lengthy illness.

Today, our park is the largest Jellystone Park in the nation with over 1,200 lots. The economic impact to the community is estimated at well over two million dollars annually and roughly two hundred thousand dollars is contributed annually to the local tax base of Kosciusko County.

Clair Shick and Weldon Bell burning the mortgage

In 1976, the park was awarded the first "Excellence" award by the franchise company, Leisure Systems. In 2004 Leisure Systems awarded our park the "Pinnacle Award," the highest award for excellence. We have received this award every year since.

Many of the same families who first purchased their lot in 1974 remain active. Today many of their children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren are enjoying the park.

A cartoon illustration of two brown bears. The bear in the foreground is standing on its hind legs, wearing a green scarf and a green headband, and pointing its right index finger upwards. The second bear is hanging upside down from the first bear's outstretched hand, wearing a blue bow tie. Both bears have large black eyes and are smiling. The background is a plain, light beige color.

EMERGENCY GUIDE

FOR ALL EMERGENCY SERVICES DIAL 911

We're concerned about you and your family's safety and welfare. We have prepared this brief guide in hopes that it will never be needed. However, we encourage you to read over it and always be prepared for the unexpected emergency.

MEDICAL EMERGENCY

A first aid kit, emergency oxygen and automatic heart defibrillator (AED) is located in the ranger station. Many times certified emergency medical technicians or paramedics are available in the park. Paramedic ambulance service is located 4 miles away in North Webster and 12 miles in Warsaw. Ambulances may be called from any phone or by contacting the ranger station. If you or any member of your group has a specific medical problem that may require special attention please notify us. Please notify us if you are on 24-hour oxygen. Keep a list of medical problems, allergies and medications within easy access. Posting information on the refrigerator door is an excellent location. If you call 911 from your phone, and if time allows, contact the ranger station to advise us of your emergency and location.

WEATHER WARNING

A Tornado Watch is issued by the National Weather Service when conditions are favorable for the development of tornadoes in and close to the watch area. Their size can vary depending on the weather situation. They are usually issued for a duration of 4 to 8 hours. They normally are issued well in advance of the actual occurrence of severe weather. During the watch, people should review tornado safety rules and be prepared to move a place of safety if threatening weather approaches.

A Tornado Warning is issued when a tornado is indicated by the WSR-88D radar or sighted by spotters; therefore, people in the affected area should seek safe shelter immediately. They can be issued without a Tornado Watch being already in effect. They are usually issued for a duration of around 30 minutes.

FIRE

Make sure you have a working smoke detector. Install fresh batteries at least once a year.

In the event of a fire....First, get out.....as fast as you can. Most trailers have more than one door or are equipped with emergency escape windows for fast exits. Review with your family where emergency exits are located and how to operate them. Have a central meeting point, well away from the burning trailer, for all family members to gather. If possible, and making sure of not endangering yourself, shut off the LP gas tanks and disconnect the electrical service to your trailer.

After everyone is out, sound the alarm to your neighbors. Sound your car horn, scream, yell or do whatever is necessary to get their attention. A burning trailer can generate heat and energy and units nearby should be warned.

Contact the fire department by calling 911 from any phone or by contacting the ranger station.

Fire extinguishers are primarily designed for small fires and can only provide a limited amount of protection. Don't risk injury, burns, or smoke inhalation by trying to put out the fire yourself. Evacuate your family, warn your neighbors and get out.
